Intentional plagiarism or collusion amounts to cheating under Part 7 of the Monash University (Council) Regulations

Plagiarism: Plagiarism means taking and using another person's ideas or manner of expressing them and passing them off as one's own. For example, by failing to give appropriate acknowledgement. The material used can be from any source (staff, students or the internet, published and unpublished works).

Collusion: Collusion means unauthorised collaboration with another person on assessable written, oral or practical work and includes paying another person to complete all or part of the work.

Where there are reasonable grounds for believing that intentional plagiarism or collusion has occurred, this will be reported to the Associate Dean (Education) or delegate, who may disallow the work concerned by prohibiting assessment or refer the matter to the Faculty Discipline Panel for a hearing.

Student Statement:
● I have read the university's Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedures.
● I understand the consequences of engaging in plagiarism and collusion as described in Part 7 of the Monash University (Council) Regulations http://adm.monash.edu/legal/legislation/statutes
● I have taken proper care to safeguard this work and made all reasonable efforts to ensure it could not be copied.
● No part of this assignment has been previously submitted as part of another unit/course.
● I acknowledge and agree that the assessor of this assignment may for the purposes of assessment, reproduce the assignment and:
    i.   provide to another member of faculty and any external marker; and/or
    ii.   submit it to a text matching software; and/or
    iii.   submit it to a text matching software which may then retain a copy of the assignment on its database for the purpose of future plagiarism checking.
● I certify that I have not plagiarised the work of others or participated in unauthorised collaboration when preparing this assignment.
